Please keep in mind that if you directly disclose personally identifiable information or personally sensitive data through Acadeum's public message boards, this information may be collected and used by others.

We do not collect any personal information about you unless you voluntarily provide it to us. However, you may be required to provide certain personal information to us when you elect to use certain products or services available on the Site. These may include: (a) registering for an account on our Site; (b) entering a sweepstakes or contest sponsored by us or one of our partners; (c) signing up for special offers from selected third parties; (d) sending us an email message; (e) submitting your credit card or other payment information when ordering and purchasing products and services on our Site. To wit, we will use your information for, but not limited to, communicating with you in relation to services and/or products you have requested from us. We also may gather additional personal or non-personal information in the future.

Use of your Personal Information

Acadeum collects and uses your personal information to operate its website(s) and deliver the services you have requested.

Acadeum may also use your personally identifiable information to inform you of other products or services available from Acadeum and its affiliates.

Sharing Information with Third Parties

Acadeum does not sell, rent or lease its customer lists to third parties.

Acadeum may, from time to time, contact you on behalf of external business partners about a particular offering that may be of interest to you. In those cases, your unique personally identifiable information (e-mail, name, address, telephone number) is not transferred to the third party.

Acadeum may share data with trusted partners to help perform statistical analysis, send you email or postal mail, provide customer support, or arrange for deliveries. All such third parties are prohibited from using your personal information except to provide these services to Acadeum, and they are required to maintain the confidentiality of your information.

Acadeum may disclose your personal information, without notice, if required to do so by law or in the good faith belief that such action is necessary to: (a) conform to the edicts of the law or comply with legal process served on Acadeum or the site; (b) protect and defend the rights or property of Acadeum; and/or (c) act under exigent circumstances to protect the personal safety of users of Acadeum, or the public.

Tracking User Behavior

Acadeum may keep track of the websites and pages our users visit within Acadeum, in order to determine what Acadeum services are the most popular. This data is used to deliver customized content and advertising within Acadeum to customers whose behavior indicates that they are interested in a particular subject area.

Mouse tracking, screen recordings, cookies, and event tracking analytics in order to provide ongoing user support and positive customized user experiences, and to continuously update and evolve our product offerings.

Automatically Collected Information

Information about your computer hardware and software may be automatically collected by Acadeum. This information can include: your IP address, browser type, domain names, access times and referring website addresses. This information is used for the operation of the service, to maintain quality of the service, and to provide general statistics regarding use of the Acadeum website.

Use of Cookies

The Acadeum website may use "cookies" to help you personalize your online experience. A cookie is a text file that is placed on your hard disk by a web page server. Cookies cannot be used to run programs or deliver viruses to your computer. Cookies are uniquely assigned to you, and can only be read by a web server in the domain that issued the cookie to you.

One of the primary purposes of cookies is to provide a convenience feature to save you time. The purpose of a cookie is to tell the Web server that you have returned to a specific page. For example, if you personalize Acadeum pages, or register with Acadeum site or services, a cookie helps Acadeum to recall your specific information on subsequent visits. This simplifies the process of recording your personal information, such as billing addresses, shipping addresses, and so on. When you return to the same Acadeum website, the information you previously provided can be retrieved, so you can easily use the Acadeum features that you customized.

You have the ability to accept or decline cookies. Most Web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. If you choose to decline cookies, you may not be able to fully experience the interactive features of the Acadeum services or websites you visit.
