NOTE: We recommend getting textbooks through Amazon as they ship rapidly to most locations and offer more used and ebook options. If you choose to use the Andrews Bookstore, be sure you order the texts listed in the syllabus for your enrolled section (970-999). Then check delivery date before you order as it is essential to have the materials from day one.

- Guest students, contact your financial advisor at your home university.
- Degree students using federal financial aid should discuss textbook costs with their financial advisor before purchasing books, if they wish to include this in their budget.

Credit Hour and Commitment

This course is offered for 3 semester credits; therefore it is expected that you will spend 135 total hours on this course. This translates to a steady 9 hours each week. You'll spend your time reading, accessing instructional materials, interacting with your instructor and classmates, and completing homework.

A recommended weekly schedule to divide your time is provided:

Weeks 1-4:

Readings and Videos: 4 hours
Reading report: 1 hour
Theological Paper: 3 hours
Zoom conference: 1 hour

Weeks 5-15:

Zoom conference: 1 hour
Disciple-making workbook and peer mentor meeting: 6 hours
Disciple-making workbook reflection: 2 hours

Institutional Outcomes

- 3.a. Articulate a biblical worldview in order to interpret life, learning, and civic responsibility from a Seventh-day Adventist perspective.
- 3.b. Address the needs of diverse communities in a manner consistent with Christian thought and practice.

Program Learning Outcomes

Graduates of this program will be able to:

- Possess a foundational knowledge in the areas of Bible, history, and theology, from a Seventh-day Adventist perspective. (Seek Knowledge)
- Express faith in the context of present society, history, theology, and be able to articulate the Seventh-day Adventist view of life both orally and in writing. (Affirm Faith)

- Exhibit growth in Christian life skills. (Affirm Faith)
- Document an attitude of mission, experience & skills in personal service. (Change the World)

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Identify foundational principles and practices of disciple-making seen in the life and ministry of Jesus.
2. Integrate biblical principles of disciple-making into a disciple-making tool that you will design to be used by others.
3. Apply the biblical methodology of disciple-making to someone you will disciple.

Part 2: Course Methods and Delivery

Methods of Instruction

Methods of instruction include assigned readings from the textbook and the course material, essay, regular personal reflection on the application of theory to personal practice, interactions with the instructor and fellow students via a weekly video conference. Regular participation in the course is essential to good performance.

LearningHub Access

This course is delivered online through LearningHub at <http://learninghub.andrews.edu>

Your username and password are your Andrews username and password. You need to activate your username and password to access LearningHub.

Please do this online here: <https://vault.andrews.edu/vault/pages/activation/information.jsp> if you haven't already. If you need assistance, call or email us: (296) 471-6016 or <mailto:helpdesk@andrews.edu>.

If you need technical assistance at any time during the course, or to report a problem with LearningHub, please email dlit@andrews.edu or call (269) 471-3960.

Part 3: Course Requirements

Important Note: This online class is not self-paced. You can arrange your schedule flexibly during each week, but you MUST participate each week. You are expected to “show up” to class by interacting in the discussion forums a minimum of two times per week. In addition, assignments are due regularly each week. Adequate Internet access during the duration of the course is critical for your participation. To be successful, plan to spend time daily on the course.

Assessment Descriptions

Theological paper—The disciple-making methods of Jesus in the gospel of Matthew (week 1-4). Read the gospel of Matthew (and only Matthew), and describe the methods you observe Jesus using to make disciples who can make disciples. Summarize your findings by constructing a model of Jesus’ disciple-making method. A final section of approximately 25% of your paper should explore the implication of your findings that you can use in your disciple-maker PDF workbook. (Minimum 2000 words). Submit by the end of week 4.

Reading report (week 1-4). After you have completed your reading / class video watching, list the essential ideas from the readings which you plan to include in each chapter of your disciple-making PDF workbook (use the format of the supplied Reading Summary handout). This will enable you to have the key disciple-making ideas mapped out before you start creating your workbook that you will refer back to when you are writing. Submit by the end of week 4.

Project: Creation of a disciple-making PDF workbook (week 5 onwards). Multiplying disciples can be facilitated by a tool that can be used with the person you are discipling, that they can then use with others. Using each of the concepts in the Disciple- Making Journey, you will develop your own tool—an electronic workbook—that you will test with another person and leave with them at the close of your course. They will also be asked to give a final assessment of your workbook. You will write a total of 18 ‘chapters’, with each chapter being 2 sides of a full-size page. Each chapter should be submitted after meeting with your peer mentor. Each chapter should include the following sections: (although you may add sections of your own)

- a. The core ideas explained including any helpful diagrams.
- b. A Bible study on the core ideas.
- c. Personal application.
- d. Recommended resources for the participant to explore by themselves.

Disciple-making workbook chapter reflections (week 5 onwards). For each of the Disciple-Making Journey chapters (see handout and schedule), write a written reflection of at least 300 words where you reflect on your experience of writing and testing the workbook with your designated peer mentor. Follow the course schedule for this—a total of 11 reflections). This should be submitted after each chapter has been written and tested.

Disciple-makers coaching video conference (Every week)—A one-hour online video mentoring session will be held for all students taking the class each week, no matter what module they are currently taking. The focus will be on 1) your reading, 2) your creation and use of your disciple-making workbook, and 3) any questions concerning the course. If you are unable to attend the weekly session, it is your responsibility to contact your teacher to make alternative arrangements.

Part 5: Course Policies

Withdrawal and Incomplete Policies

The current withdrawal policy can be found online at <https://www.andrews.edu/distance/students/gradplus/withdrawal.html>. The incomplete policy is found online at <http://www.andrews.edu/web/msc/moodle/public/incompletes.html>.

Late Work

Due dates are listed both in the LearningHub course space and in the syllabus. Late work will have 10% of the earned points deducted.

Maintain Professional Conduct Both in the Classroom and Online

The classroom is a professional environment where academic debate and learning take place. Your instructor will make every effort to make this environment safe for you to share your opinions, ideas, and beliefs. In return, you are expected to respect the opinions, ideas, and beliefs of other students—both in the face-to-face classroom and online communication. Students have the right and privilege to learn in the class, free from harassment and disruption.

Netiquette

In this course you will communicate with your classmates and instructor primarily in writing through the discussion forum and e-mail.

"Online manners" are generally known as "netiquette." As a general rule, you should adhere to the same classroom conduct that you would "off-line" in a face-to-face course. Some examples of proper netiquette are:

1. Avoid writing messages in all capital letters. THIS IS GENERALLY UNDERSTOOD AS SHOUTING.
2. Be careful what you put in writing. Even if you are writing an e-mail message to one person, assume that anyone could read it. Though you may send an e-mail to a single person, it is very easy to forward your message to hundreds or thousands of people.

3. Grammar and spelling matter. Online courses demand the same standard of academic communication and use of grammar as face-to-face courses.
4. Never use profanity in any area of an online course. The transcripts of online course discussion forums, e-mail, and chat sessions are savable.
5. When responding to messages, only use "Reply to All" when you really intend to reply to all.
6. Avoid unkindly public criticism of others. Publicly criticizing others in an inappropriate way is known as "flaming." Consider this course a practice forum for selecting your verbiage thoughtfully and professionally.
7. Use sarcasm cautiously. In the absence of nonverbal cues such as facial expressions and voice inflections, the context for your sarcasm may be lost, and your message may thus be misinterpreted.
8. In a face-to-face setting, our tone of voice and facial expressions may convey as much of our meaning as the words we use. In a written message, the subtext of your meaning may be confused or misinterpreted. Write clearly. Use active verbs.

Academic Accommodations

Students who require accommodations may request an academic adjustment as follows:

1. Read the Andrews University Disability Accommodation information at <https://www.andrews.edu/services/sscenter/disability/>
2. Download and fill in the disability form at <http://www.andrews.edu/services/sscenter/disability/accommodationsreqform.pdf> . Preferably type answers. To save a digital copy, 1) print to file and save or 2) print and scan. Email the completed form and disability documentation (if any) to success@andrews.edu or fax it to (269) 471-8407.
3. Email sdestudents@andrews.edu to inform the School of Distance Education that a disability has been reported to Student Success.

Commitment to Integrity

As a student in this course, and at the university, you are expected to maintain high degrees of professionalism, commitment to active learning, participation in this course, and integrity in your behavior in and out of this online classroom.

Commitment to Excellence

You deserve a standing ovation based on your decision to enroll in, and effectively complete this course. Along with your pledge of "commitment to Integrity" you are expected to adhere to a "commitment to excellence." Andrews University has established high academic standards that will truly enhance your writing and communication skills across the disciplines and in diverse milieu with many discourse communities in the workplace.

Honesty

Using the work of another student or allowing work to be used by another student jeopardizes not only the teacher-student relationship but also the student's academic standing. Lessons may be discussed with other students, tutors may help to guide a student's work, and textbooks, encyclopedias and other resource materials may be used for additional assistance, but the actual response must be the student's own work. A student who gives information to another student to be used in a dishonest way is equally guilty of dishonesty.

Any violation of this policy will be taken before the Higher Education Academic and Curriculum Committee for appropriate punitive action.
