

BAKER COLLEGE

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

BUS7590 Healthcare Finance

3 Semester Hours

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Identify the users and functions of financial information in the health care organization.
2. Assess the impact of changes in the financial environment of the health care industry.
3. Interpret the legal and regulatory aspects of health finance and assess their impact on the health care organization.
4. Understand the revenue cycle for health care firms, the process of claim generation and revenue determination.
5. Describe the relationship between financial planning and strategic planning.
6. Assess the importance of various cost concepts and their role in the decision making process.
7. Interpret capital project analysis results to evaluate investment options including consolidations and mergers and make decisions.
8. Demonstrate knowledge of various financial forecasting and budgeting techniques for organizational operations.
9. Develop quantitative skills to interpret, analyze and apply financial data to decision making.

These SLOs are not approved for experiential credit.

Effective: Summer 2018