

BAKER COLLEGE

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

CRJ2320 Principles of Policing II
3 Semester Hours

Student Learning Outcomes and Enabling Objectives

1. Investigate the societal issues that influence police work.
 - a. Discuss the positive and negative implications of various societal issues, such as cultural diversity, politics, economy, technology, and community on police work.
 2. Explore the cultural history of law enforcement from the 1960s through present day.
 - a. Examine major court cases from the 1960s through present day that have changed law enforcement.
 - b. Examine major events from the 1960s through present day that have changed law enforcement.
 - c. Explain how the role of women in law enforcement has evolved.
 - d. Identify the challenges minorities faced in law enforcement.
 - e. Examine the cause and effect relationship between community relations and law enforcement.
 3. Examine the relationship between justice and police work.
 - a. Analyze the skills, tools and methods used in police work to achieve justice.
 - b. Apply appropriate ethical behavior to various law enforcement situations.
 4. Apply the skills, tools, and methods of police work as they relate to justice.
 - a. Examine the skills, tools, and methods necessary for ensuring officer and community safety.
 - b. Based on the Use of Force Continuum, determine the appropriate application of force in various police situations.
 - c. Demonstrate the ability to handle a simulated high priority call as the 911 telecommunications professional assisting law enforcement
-

Big Ideas and Essential Questions

Big Ideas

- Societal Impact
- Justice
 - Ethics
 - Skills, Tools, Methods

Essential Questions

1. How has the relationship between law enforcement and society changed?
 2. How does the ultimate goal of achieving justice direct our actions in law enforcement?
-