

BAKER COLLEGE STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

MIS 6720 Information Systems Integration Project II
3 Semester Hours

Student Learning Outcomes & Enabling Objectives

1. Effectively communicate with various stakeholders of an information systems development or integration project regarding user needs, system requirements, system functions, interfaces, etc.;
2. Master information systems development project management skills;
3. Design and implement an information system either individually or in a team;
4. Develop system test plan, test a system, remediate critical defects, and provide test results report;
5. Adequately adapt to and manage changes, which are inevitable in information systems development or integration projects;
6. Assess emerging technologies in the IT industry and their impacts on projects as appropriate;
7. Conduct ethical behaviors in an information system development or integration context;
8. Understand diversity and its impact in the field of information systems

These SLOs are not approved for experiential credit.

Effective: Summer 2018