

BAKER COLLEGE

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

SOC2010 Sociology
3 Semester Hours

Student Learning Outcomes and Enabling Objectives

1. Explain the sociological perspective and its origin.
 - a. Identify the major forces that influence the socialization process.
 - b. Discuss the consequences of studying the social group and social interactions.
 - c. Describe the concept of culture and its various components.
 2. Explain the major sociological theories and research methods used.
 - a. Differentiate between major sociological theories.
 - b. Apply the theories to the analysis of a social issue.
 - c. Describe the major research methods.
 3. Describe the sociological approach to the identification and analysis of deviance and social control.
 - a. Discuss how sociologists define deviance.
 - b. Discuss the application of social control in society.
 4. Explore the effects of social institutions on society.
 - a. Examine the relationship between people and the major elements of society.
 - b. Examine the effects of socialization agent on attitudes and behaviors.
 5. Describe social movements and collective behavior.
 - a. Define the different types of social movements.
 - b. Define what constitutes collective behavior.
 - c. Discuss how collective behavior evolves into a social movement.
 6. Discuss fundamental organizing components of society.
 - a. Define the major organizing principles of stratification.
-

These SLOs are approved for experiential credit.

Effective: Fall 2017