CM101 Introduction to Mass Communications Credits: 3

COURSE DETAILS

Course Description

This course surveys the dynamics of mass communication and media in the computer age. All aspects of the media--history, ethics, organization, and career opportunities in print and electronic media are covered through reading and class work. After gaining perspective through reading and class discussion of the nature and history of mass communication, students proceed to class work involving print media--including newspapers, magazines and book publishing; and electronic media--including radio, sound recording, motion pictures, television and the Internet/World Wide Web.

Course Learning Objectives

This course will provide students with the opportunity to:

1. Identify the major mass communication mediums and summarize recurring themes throughout mass communication history.
2. Describe media industry jobs and career opportunities in the mass communication industries.
3. Explain how corporate owned media influences both program content and media industry structure.
4. Compare and contrast the roles journalism, advertising, and public relations play in mass communication.
5. Cite controversial issues in the mass communication field and critically evaluate their impact on society.
6. Critique how media convergence, new digital technology, and audience fragmentation are impacting media industries and mass communication.

Achievement of learning objectives will be contingent on student effort, ability, and engagement.

COURSE POLICIES

Attendance Policy

Attendance in online classes is determined by participation on discussion boards and Collaborate sessions. You will be counted absent for not participating in weekly discussion boards and Collaborate sessions (live or recorded).

Faculty will provide detailed attendance policies in each class syllabus. Please refer to Blackboard once the term begins.

If you believe you are likely to fail, you have the option of withdrawing from this course to avoid a negative impact on your GPA. The last day to withdraw is 10 days prior to the end of the term.

Blackboard Collaborate

Blackboard Collaborate participation is required in all Fisher College online courses. Participation is defined as attending the live environment, or watching a recorded session. Fisher College instructors offer an alternative (recordings) to the students who are unable to attend live, in an effort to keep online education as flexible as possible.

FISHER COLLEGE POLICIES

Communication

Students are required to use their Fisher College email addresses when communicating with faculty or administrators at Fisher College. This practice ensures proper security of student related communications. Communication in person or via email is expected to be professional and respectful. Violations are subject to disciplinary action as identified in the Student Code of Conduct Civility policy.

Student Accessibility Services Statement

Fisher College complies with federal legislation for individuals with disabilities (Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990, and the ADAA of 2009) and offers reasonable accommodations to qualified students with disabilities. For accessibility purposes, some classes may be recorded.

For students who require classroom accommodations, please notify the Office of Student Accessibility Services/OSAS. Accommodations are arranged through OSAS, which will issue a confidential Disability Services Accommodation Form. This should be accomplished during the first two weeks of class. If you have questions about the process, please contact OSAS by calling 617-671-4429. You may also contact OSAS via email at OSAS@fisher.edu.

Class and Homework Expectations

The following chart outlines the number of hours that students should expect to spend in each 3-credit course.

	Class Format	Classroom Instruction	Online Instruction	Homework/ Out-of-Class	Total Hours per Week	Total Hours per Term

Academic Integrity Statement

All students are responsible for maintaining high standards of honesty and integrity in their coursework. Students found guilty of academic dishonesty subject themselves to academic sanctions up to and including expulsion from the College.

Academic Dishonesty includes but is not limited to the following:

- Unauthorized copying, sharing or collaboration on assignments
- The use of unauthorized technology, notes, slips, copying or other illegal means to give or receive answers during examinations or on assignments
- Self-plagiarism: Using an assignment for more than one class, without the permission of the instructor
- Plagiarism: The use of ideas or words of another person without proper citations, written or in presentations. A student should consult his/her faculty when questions arise as to when and how to properly acknowledge the work of others within his/her own oral or written expression
- Contract Cheating: Purchasing assignments or hiring an individual to complete coursework. The College expects that every assignment, such as essays, research papers, lab reports, oral presentations, and examinations, be the product of the student whose name appears on the work
- Fraudulent Course Participation: It is dishonest to share your user login to any class and allow anyone other than yourself to take part in any aspect of your academic coursework for pay, or just for assistance

If a student is found to have violated the Fisher College Academic Integrity Policy, penalties ranging from a zero on the assignment through dismissal from the College will be imposed based on the nature of the violation. The full policy can be found on the Fisher College Web Site and Code of Conduct.

Student Code of Conduct & Online Etiquette

All students of Fisher College are expected to abide by the Student Code of Conduct, as published in the Student Code of Conduct and the Fisher College website. Please review this important information. In addition, students are expected to abide the following:

In the online course environment:

- ✓ Respect others and their opinions.
- ✓ Choose your words carefully. Humor is not easily detected through words alone, and it may be misinterpreted.
- ✓ Do not type in all caps. This is viewed as yelling.
- ✓ Use proper English, grammar, and punctuation. "Texting" lingo and abbreviations are not acceptable.

- ✓ All email communications must be sent using your Fisher College email address. Also, be sure to sign your full name to all email communications.
- ✓ Always spell check.

During Live Online Collaboration:

- ✓ Turn off microphone when not in use.
- ✓ Be mindful of your surroundings and privacy of family members. Only students should be present on camera.
- ✓ Stay focused. Do not multitask with emails, phone calls, papers, etc.
- ✓ If you need to step away from the session, use the "Away" function.
- ✓ Use the "Raise Hand" function to ask a question, and then wait to be called on.
- ✓ Proper Attire is required.

This course syllabus and outline is subject to change. Students are responsible for attending classes and visiting Blackboard to ensure they are up to date on any changes that take place.
