Course Description

This course draws upon skills introduced in Writing 1. It emphasizes critical reading and writing. Students also learn techniques for composing and documenting research papers. Course work includes essays and a final research paper.

Students must have a grade of "C" or better to earn credit in this course.

Credit Hours: 3

Overview and Course Goals

Writing 2 fulfills one-half of the competency requirements for basic skills stipulated by Friends University General Education curriculum. This course also helps students meet the University/Division/General Education outcome with states, "Students who successfully complete the general education core will demonstrate the ability to read, write, and speak appropriately and effectively," and the University/Division/General Education outcome which states that students will demonstrate "competency in research-related skills."

Course Policies

ONLINE PARTICIPATION

Participation online is expected throughout the course. Content areas may include discussions, written assignments, quizzes, Internet resources, etc. Each week will be different depending on the assignments required. A class week is defined as seven days: Monday through Sunday.

All official university communication will use Friends University issued email accounts. All assignments will be submitted via the Moodle System.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Online attendance is determined by participation in each weekly session. In order to be counted "present" you must submit at least one of the assignments.

LATE WORK POLICY

Essays will be allowed a one-week grace period for a one letter grade deduction. This means that the absolute highest grade possible on a late essay is 90%. After one week, essays will not be accepted. Journals, SARs, or any other assignment not classified as an essay will not be accepted late.
