BIL-412: Romans and Galatians

Written By: David A. Ackerman, Ph.D.

Course Description

This class will seek to give a detailed and analytical study of Paul's letters to the Romans and the Galatians.

Credit Hours: 3

Prerequisite Courses: BIL-202, BIL-203

Prerequisite Skills and Knowledge: Familiarity with the Inductive Bible Study (IBS) method found in other courses in this curriculum.

Course Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, you should be able to:

1. Describe the content of Romans and Galatians with reference to the letter's structure and major themes.
2. Explain the major themes of Romans and Galatians, including the nature of Christian liberty from sin and the Law, saving faith, the Spirit-led life, and hope.
3. Analyze Paul's descriptions of the salvation process, including justification, regeneration, adoption, entire sanctification, and the life of holiness.

4. Appropriate the spiritual truths from Romans and Galatians in one's own life and ministry.
5. Design a Bible study lesson based on an Inductive Bible Study of Romans or Galatians.
6. Articulate ways in which Romans and Galatians speak to modern or contemporary society.
7. Employ the tools of inductive Bible study to interpret various passages from Romans and Galatians.

Grading Policies

Your grading policy for your course is dependent on your school and program. Your grading policies can be found in the IWU Catalog.

Letter Grade Equivalencies

Grade	Description of Work
A	Clearly stands out as excellent performance. Has unusually sharp insights into material and initiates thoughtful questions. Sees many sides of an issue. Articulates well and writes logically and clearly. Integrates ideas previously learned from this and other disciplines. Anticipates next steps in progression of ideas. Example "A" work should be of such nature that it could be put on reserve for all cohort members to review and emulate. The "A" cohort member is, in fact, an example for others to follow.
B	Demonstrates a solid comprehension of the subject matter and always accomplishes all course requirements. Serves as an active participant and listener. Communicates orally and in writing at an acceptable level for the degree program. Work shows intuition and creativity. Example "B" work indicates good quality of performance and is given in recognition for solid work; a "B" should be considered a good grade and awarded to those who submit assignments of quality less than the exemplary work described above.
	Quality and quantity of work in and out of class is average. Has marginal

C	comprehension, communication skills, or initiative. Requirements of the assignments are addressed at least minimally.
D	Quality and quantity of work is below average. Has minimal comprehension, communication skills, or initiative. Requirements of the assignments are addressed at below acceptable levels.
F	Quality and quantity of work is unacceptable and does not qualify the student to progress to a more advanced level of work.
