University Mission Statement:

Lee University is a Christian institution which offers liberal arts and professional education on both the baccalaureate and graduate levels through residential and distance programs. It seeks to provide education that integrates biblical truth as revealed in the Holy Scriptures with truth discovered through the study of arts and sciences and in the practice of various professions. A personal commitment to Jesus Christ as Savior is the controlling perspective from which the educational enterprise is carried out. The foundational purpose of all educational programs is to develop within the students knowledge, appreciation, understanding, ability and skills which will prepare them for responsible Christian living in a complex world.

Catalog Description:

This is an intermediate-level course that extends students' development of comprehension and sign production skills. In addition, the course continues to build conversational proficiency and expand vocabulary range. It also provides more extensive opportunities for students to interact with members of the Deaf community, immersing them in Deaf culture and heritage.

Required Text(s) and/or Supporting Resources:Required Text:

Humphries, T., Padden, C. & O'Rourke, T.J. (2002). A Basic Course in American Sign Language. (2nd ed.). Silver Springs, MD: T.J. Publishers, Inc.

Additional Supporting Resources:

Resources included in the Learning Management System (LMS).

Prerequisite Skills and Knowledge:

SIGN-111 AND SIGN-112

Course Goals and Learning Outcomes:PURPOSE

This course is a continuation of ASL 2, expanding the emphasis on ASL grammar and sentence structure and receptive and expressive vocabulary development. Dialogues, short to medium-length stories, narratives and conversational practice will be emphasized. Elementary ASL Literature will be introduced. Perspectives on social, political and educational issues within the Deaf Community will be discussed

General Learning Objectives (Course Goals):

This course seeks to:

1. Demonstrate visual and physical coordination skills necessary at an intermediate level.
2. Gain knowledge of relevant vocabulary.
3. Develop an understanding of complex ASL sentence types.
4. Begin utilizing the full range of ASL grammatical structures, including facial expressions, verb modulations, noun classifiers, and cultural habits/expectations.
5. Understand and engage in longer dialogues.
6. Develop confidence and fluency in signing by practicing in class with peers, one-on-one with the instructor, on videotape for evaluation, and in social gatherings with Deaf community members.

7. Recognize the variety of career opportunities, both here and abroad, secular and Christian, for Deaf people.
8. Explore the variety of and development of performing arts; in theatre, movies and TV.

Specific Behavioral Objectives (Learning Outcomes):

As a result of the activities and study in this course, the student should be able to:

1. Identify fingerspelling words independently or in a sentence.
2. Produce fingerspelling words utilizing fingerspelling loaned style.
3. Demonstrate vocabulary signs on topics covered in this course.
4. Express in ASL self-generated short stories for medium length narratives.
5. Incorporate narrative storytelling techniques.
6. Perform an ASL story.
7. Demonstrate communication techniques in correcting & elaborating.
8. Demonstrate the various grammatical features or language skills in AS.
9. Demonstrate receptive competence for relatively short narratives of medium length stories in ASL that are told by the professor and/or Deaf users of ASL and fellow students.

Major Topics:

- A. ASL Grammar
- B. ASL Glossing
- C. Expanded Vocabulary
- D. Fingerspelling and Numbers

Course Assessments:

- A. Text/Media. All text/media is evaluated in the threaded discussions and assignments.
- B. Threaded Discussions. The threaded discussions are an opportunity for students to demonstrate their knowledge of the course material and interact with fellow students. For the initial post, the student will create a video (wearing a solid color shirt to provide a contrast to the student's skin color) signing their answer to the threaded discussion instructions provided. Once the initial post deadline has passed, the student will view two (2) peer initial posts and provide a response in writing based on the criteria provided in the threaded discussion instructions.
- C. Exams. There are 4 quizzes and 5 exams given throughout the course. Further instructions are provided with each assignment.
- D. Course Projects. Each student will complete two Signing Presentations which will be done as videos. Students must wear a solid color shirt that will contrast against the student's skin color so their signing is clear. More detailed instructions are included in the course.

Evaluation:

- | | |
|-------------------------|-----|
| A. Threaded Discussions | 150 |
| B. Course Projects | 150 |
| C. Exams | 700 |

Grading Scale:

The standardized grading scale provides a uniform foundation from which to assess your performance.

Grade	Quality Points per Credit	Score
A	4.0	930 - 1000
A-	3.7	900 - 929
B+	3.3	870 - 899
B	3.0	830 - 869
B-	2.7	800 - 829
C+	2.3	770 - 799
C	2.0	730 - 769
C-	1.7	700 - 729
D+	1.3	670 - 699
D	1.0	600 - 669
F	.0	0 - 599

Letter Grade Equivalencies:

A = Clearly stands out as excellent performance. Has unusually sharp insights into material and initiates thoughtful questions. Sees many sides of an issue. Articulates well and writes logically and clearly. Integrates ideas previously learned from this and other disciplines. Anticipates next steps in progression of ideas. Example "A" work should be of such nature that it could be put on reserve for all cohort members to review and emulate. The "A" cohort member is, in fact, an example for others to follow.

B = Demonstrates a solid comprehension of the subject matter and always accomplishes all course requirements. Serves as an active participant and listener. Communicates orally and in writing at an acceptable level for a cohort member. Work shows intuition and creativity. Example "B" work indicates good quality of performance and is given in recognition for solid work; a "B" should be considered a good grade and awarded to those who submit assignments of quality less than the exemplary work described above.

C = Quality and quantity of work is average. Has average comprehension, communication skills, or initiative. Requirements of the assignments are addressed at least minimally.

D = Quality and quantity of work is below average. Has marginal comprehension, communication skills, or initiative. Requirements of the assignments are addressed at below acceptable levels.

F = Quality and quantity of work is unacceptable and does not qualify the student to progress to a more advanced level of work.

Unit and Time Distribution:

The time to complete each unit is approximately 14-17 hours per week on average for a three hour course. Actual assignment completion times will vary. A more detailed breakdown of each assignment can be found within the course.

POLICIESAttendance Policy:

At Lee University student success is directly related to the student actively attending and engaging in the course. Online courses are no different from classroom courses in this regard; however, participation must be defined in a different manner.

Online courses will have weekly mechanisms for student participation, which can be documented by submission/completion of assignments, participation in threaded discussions, and/or specific communication with the instructor as outlined within the syllabus.

Academic Honesty Policy/Information:

Cheating is defined as the use or attempted use of unauthorized materials or receiving unauthorized assistance or communication during any academic exercise.

Examples of cheating include:

- Submitting work for academic evaluation that is not your own.
- Receiving assistance from another person during an examination.
- Using prepared notes or materials during an examination.
- Permitting another student to copy your work.
- Plagiarism.
- Falsification.
- Other misrepresentations of academic achievement submitted for evaluation or a grade.

As stated in the LEE UNIVERSITY Catalog, plagiarism is presenting as your own work the words, ideas, opinions, theories, or thoughts which are not common knowledge. Students who present others' words or ideas as their own without fair attribution (documentation) are guilty of plagiarizing. Unfair attribution includes, but is not limited to, a direct quotation of all or part of another's words without appropriately identifying the source. It is also unfair attribution to have included a source within a Works Cited page without having carefully cited the source within the text of the document. Plagiarism also includes, but is not limited to, the following acts when performed without fair attribution:

- a. directly quoting all or part of another person's words without quotation marks, as appropriate to the discipline.
- b. paraphrasing all or part of another person's words without documentation.
- c. stating an idea, theory, or formula as your own when it actually originated with another person.
- d. purchasing (or receiving in any other manner) a term paper or other assignment, which is the work of another person, and submitting that work as if it were one's own.

Late Policy:

- No credit is available for postings of any kind made in the Threaded Discussions after a given Unit ends.
- If your faculty approves your submission of late assignments, each assignment score will be penalized 10% per day up to five days late. After the fifth day, late assignments will not be accepted. (Note: An assignment is a paper, a project, a team presentation, etc., not a discussion.)

- No late assignments will be accepted after the close of the final unit.

EXPECTATIONS

Faculty Expectations of Students:

- Have consistent access to a computer and possess baseline computer and information skills prior to taking online courses.
- Log into their courses within 24 hours of the beginning of the session to confirm their participation. (Students who register after the session has begun will be responsible for any assignments or material already covered.)
- Take an active role in each unit, participating fully in discussions, assignments and other activities throughout the entire session. If some event interferes with that participation, the student is responsible for notifying the instructor in advance.
- Review the course syllabus and other preliminary course materials thoroughly as early as possible during the first few days of the course.
- Be responsible for raising any questions or seeking clarification about these materials, if necessary, within the first week of the session.
- Frequently check the course calendar for due dates.
- Submit assignments and papers on time, and take tests by the posted dates. Acceptance of late work and any penalties for late submissions are up to the discretion of the instructor, based on the expectations outlined in the course syllabus.
- Contribute meaningful, timely comments to online discussions according to guidelines provided.
- Contribute substantively to group assignments (if required in course).
- Check for University announcements each time you log onto the LMS. These postings are critical.
- Use Lee email address.
- Complete the "Student Survey of Instruction" for each course to evaluate the instructor and the course.

Students' Expectations of Faculty:

- The opportunity to be active participants in a stimulating and challenging education that is global in scope, interactive in process and diverse in content and approach.
- A friendly, respectful, open, and encouraging learning environment.
- A course outline or syllabus that clearly provides information regarding course content, teaching methods, course objectives, grading, attendance/participation policies, due dates, and student assessment guidelines.
- Instructors who are responsive and available to discuss within 48 hours students' progress, course content, assignments, etc. at mutually convenient times from the first day of the session through the last day of the session. (Check the faculty contact information regarding weekends and holidays.)

- Individual instructor's contact information, schedules, availability, and procedural details are located within the course.
- To have access to instructor feedback and grading on projects, exams, papers, quizzes, etc., within ten (10) days of assignment due date so students are able to determine where they have made errors or need additional work.
- Final grade/feedback provided within ten (10) days after the last date of course.

IMPORTANT STUDENT INFORMATION

Special Needs:

Lee University is committed to the provision of reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities, as defined in Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Students who think they may qualify for these accommodations should contact the Office of Academic Support to set up accommodations.
