

Online 8-Week Course Syllabus

BI-4404 Applying Scripture in the Contemporary World

Course Description

This course will address contemporary issues impacting the church through the analysis of biblical texts. Emphasis is placed on the development of action plans to address identified concerns.

3 credit hours

Prerequisites: None.

Course Objectives

By the completion of this course, you should be able to:

1. Clearly articulate some of the major contemporary global issues facing Christianity today and how the Scripture can be applied to help the church minister in the contemporary social/historical context.
2. Engage numerous contemporary topics from a Christian standpoint relying on Scripture to inform their discussion.
3. Determine the exegetical principles prudent for a modern hermeneutic of Scripture as relevant and informative for the contemporary world.
4. Demonstrate a clear understanding of the historical/cultural influence Christianity has had upon society and how this influence can be exerted again.

Course Materials (required)

Only those items required to be obtained by you are listed on this syllabus. Some reading material and/or media links used in the course—but not required for purchase—will be provided in Canvas for the week/lesson in which the materials are used. A course Bibliography, if provided, includes a listing of all reading materials and suggestions for further study.

Readings:

Aquilina, Mike, and James L. Papandrea. How Christianity Saved Civilization and Must Do It Again. Sophia Inst. Press, 2019. ISBN: 978-1622827190. [Aquilina & Papandrea]

NOTE: This text is the same as the Seven Revolutions title listed earlier only under a different title.

Bible:

A Bible is frequently used in online courses at Moody. Unless otherwise specified, you may use the Bible version of your choice. If a specific version is required, you may wish to purchase it for your personal library. Many versions are available free online at: www.biblegateway.com, www.biblestudytools.com/bible-versions/, www.bible.com/versions, etc.

IMPORTANT: Textbooks and other materials in this online course are carefully selected and approved by Moody Bible Institute faculty to engage students in learning. Views expressed in the material may not necessarily reflect those held by Moody. We expect students to engage with course material in a mature and respectful way, understanding it may not always align with a biblical worldview and must be engaged with maturity and critical thinking. If you struggle with the content of the material from a biblical or theological perspective, please contact your course instructor for advice and guidance.

Course Work

All coursework is due according to the Schedule.

A. CLASS PARTICIPATION: Active participation is expected in this online course. Participation includes two main areas: study materials (reading/media) and discussion boards (student interaction). Class Participation contributes significantly to your final course grade.

1. Study Materials: The completion of the course reading, audio/video review, online articles, etc. is an important part of your education. You should complete these study materials prior to working on your graded assignment(s) and initial discussion board posting with each lesson so that you can incorporate new concepts from these materials into your work. While Moody does not require the reporting of your reading/media engagement, you are each expected to engage with the content, as expressed in the Course Honor Code & Professional Conduct Statements listed below.
2. Discussion Boards: Discussion boards are, by nature, the interaction between students and peers to be completed during the week for which they are assigned. When students do not participate in discussion boards, they essentially rob not only themselves but their peers of the learning opportunity. This is a disservice to everyone. No credit will be granted for late discussion board posting unless otherwise approved by the instructor.

You must maintain a significant presence on the discussion board. If not specified, post your initial response to the discussion question by mid-week (Friday, 11:59 pm CT [Central Time]). Then read all other threads and respond to at least two (2) other student initial threads by the end of the week (Monday, 11:59 pm CT).

B. ASSIGNMENTS: Assignments are the primary means of assessing whether learning has transpired and may include papers, reports, exams, projects, and the like. Specific detail for each assignment is listed in Canvas. Create the assignment, save the file, then submit it through a link in Canvas so it can be graded by your instructor. Your instructor will return assignments through Canvas. Submit all assignments by Monday at 11:59 pm CT unless otherwise stated in the directions.

Assessments

Grades for this course will consist of:

Assessment		Total Points	Percentage of Final Grade*

B-	80-82.9%	D-	60-62.9%
C+	77-79.9%	F	Below 60%

MLA Writing Style

Undergraduate students at Moody Bible Institute are to follow the Modern Language Association (MLA) style for all written assignments. Your instructor may waive this requirement for specific assignments such as discussion boards, blogs, emails, and the like, but if not stated otherwise, follow MLA guidelines. Assignments not in proper MLA format may be returned with a request to redo the assignment and could be subject to a late penalty.

Unless otherwise directed, all assignments submitted as a document are to be in a standard 12-point serif font (limited to Time New Roman, Cambria, Century Schoolbook), 8½ x 11-inch page size, double-spaced, and are to be submitted as a Microsoft Word document (.doc or .docx) only. IMPORTANT: Other document formats will be returned to the student for resubmission with the possibility of a late penalty being applied.

You should follow the latest version of the MLA Handbook, the MLA Style website, or the Purdue Online Writing Lab (OWL) as references. Papers that cite other works and sources must include a Works Cited page. The Bible is considered a source.

Course Honor Code & Professional Conduct Statements

Course Honor Code

At Moody Bible Institute you are required to maintain the highest ethical and moral standards in your quest for academic excellence. Therefore, you commit to not cheat, steal, or claim credit for the ideas and words of others. You commit to respecting the intellectual property of others and will always acknowledge the authorship of intellectual property in all forms. By participating in this course, you acknowledge you have read this syllabus and agree to abide by it.

Professional Conduct

Moody Bible Institute online students are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that is conducive to continued growth toward biblical and spiritual maturity. You are expected to access classes regularly, interact with the required readings and media, and to be fully prepared and engaged. You are expected to act professionally and with a high degree of ethical conduct while applying yourself fully to the job of learning. All communications are expected to be conducted in a professional manner, whether oral or written, in assignments, email, or Discussion Boards. Consult the Student Handbook for distance learning/online student's further details on the "Code of Conduct for Online and Non-Residential Students."

It is your obligation to know and observe all institute policies and procedures and to keep current with this class by reading the information posted on the Announcement page and sent by email to your official Moody.edu email address.

Academic Integrity and Penalties for Academic Misconduct

Academic integrity requires students to be responsible and honest in the fulfillment of all of their academic work. Assignments, examinations, and other educational requirements are intended to foster student learning. Students are expected to submit original work, to use appropriate citation giving credit to the ideas or words of another person, and to refrain from cheating of any kind.

Cheating

Cheating is any act (whether successful or attempted) in which a student is dishonest or seeks to gain an unfair advantage on an assignment, quiz, paper, examination, class, etc. Some common forms of cheating include, but are not necessarily limited to:

- Using unauthorized material during an examination or other assignments
- Submitting the same assignment in more than one class
- Lying to an instructor in order to obtain an excused absence, extension on an assignment, makeup examination, admission to a class or program, etc.
- Inappropriate collaboration on classroom assignments
- Assisting others in academic misconduct

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is taking the ideas or words of another person and presenting them as one's own whether intentional or unintentional. Intentional plagiarism is unethical and constitutes a serious infraction of academic policy. When the words or ideas of others are used, proper credit must be given, either in a footnote or in the text.

Penalties for Academic Misconduct

First Offense: automatic failure of any and all assignments, quizzes, examinations, or class requirements in which academic misconduct occurred. The instructor of the course will notify the Academic Standards Committee via the registrar with an explanation of the situation. Discretion is given to the Academic Standards Committee and the Academic Dean to impose more strenuous penalties. The violation will remain on record and information concerning the incident will be communicated to all instructors.

Second Offense: automatic failure of any and all assignments, quizzes, examinations, or class requirements in which academic misconduct occurred. The instructor of the course will notify the Academic Standards Committee via the registrar. Discretion is given to the Academic Standards Committee and the Academic Dean to determine an appropriate penalty with a minimum penalty of failure of a course and a maximum penalty of suspension or dismissal. A record of the violation goes into the student's file. The Academic Dean will notify the faculty of the results of this process.

ADA Compliance Statement

Moody Bible Institute complies with the ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act) as well as Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, by providing appropriate accommodations to qualified students with disabilities. We encourage you to contact the disability services provider, at the Student Resource Center, to discuss possible environmental modifications or adaptations. Please note, that accommodations are not retroactive; therefore, we encourage you to contact the services provider within the first two weeks of the semester. Contact information is provided within each online course.
