necessarily reflect those held by Moody. We expect students to engage with course material in a mature and respectful way, understanding it may not always align with a biblical worldview and must be engaged with maturity and critical thinking. ### Course Work

All course work is due according to the course Schedule.

A. CLASS PARTICIPATION: Active participation is expected in this online course. Participation includes two main areas: study materials (reading/media) and discussion boards (student interaction). Class Participation contributes significantly to your final course grade.

1. Study Materials: The completion of the course reading, audio/video review, online articles, etc. is an important part of your education. You should complete these study materials prior to working on your graded assignment(s) and initial discussion board posting with each lesson so that you can incorporate new concepts from these materials into your work. While Moody does not require the reporting of your reading/media engagement, you are each expected to engage with the content, as expressed in the Course Honor Code & Professional Conduct Statements listed below.
2. Discussion Boards: Discussion boards are, by nature, the interaction between students and peers to be completed during the week for which they are assigned. When students do not participate in discussion boards they essentially rob not only themselves but their peers of the learning opportunity. This is a disservice to everyone. No credit will be granted for late discussion board posting unless otherwise approved by the instructor.

You must maintain a significant presence in the discussion board. If not specified, post your initial response to the discussion question by the end of the first week (Monday, 11:59 pm CT [Central Time]). Then read all other threads and respond to at least two (2) other student's original threads by the end of the second week of the lesson (Monday, 11:59 pm CT).

B. ASSIGNMENTS: Assignments are the primary means of assessing whether learning has transpired and may include papers, reports, exams, projects, and the like. Specific detail for each assignment is listed in Canvas. Create the assignment, save the file, then submit through a link in Canvas so they can be graded by your instructor. Your instructor will return assignments through Canvas. Submit all assignments by Monday at 11:59 pm CT unless otherwise stated in the directions.

Assignments not in proper MLA format may be returned with a request to redo the assignment and could be subject to a late penalty.

Unless otherwise directed, all assignments submitted as a document are to be in a standard 12-point serif font (limited to Time New Roman, Cambria, Century Schoolbook), 8½ x 11 page size, double-spaced and are to be submitted as a Microsoft Word document (.doc or .docx) only. IMPORTANT: Other document formats will be returned to the student for resubmission with the possibility of a late penalty being applied.

You should follow the latest version of the MLA Handbook, the MLA Style website, or the Purdue Online Writing Lab (OWL) as references. Papers that cite other works and sources must include a Works Cited page. The Bible is considered a source.

Assignments, examinations, and other educational requirements are intended to foster student learning. Students are expected to submit original work, to use appropriate citation giving credit to the ideas or words of another person, and to refrain from cheating of any kind.

Cheating

Cheating is any act (whether successful or attempted) in which a student is dishonest or seeks to gain an unfair advantage on an assignment, quiz, paper, examination, class, etc. Some common forms of cheating included, but are not necessarily limited to:

- Using unauthorized material during an examination or other assignments
- Submitting the same assignment in more than one class
- Lying to an instructor in order to obtain an excused absence, extension on an assignment, makeup examination, admission to a class or program, etc.
- Inappropriate collaboration on classroom assignments
- Assisting others in academic misconduct

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is taking the ideas or words of another person and presenting them as one's own whether intentional or unintentional. Intentional plagiarism is unethical and constitutes a serious infraction of academic policy. When the words or ideas of others are used, proper credit must be given, either in a footnote or in the text.

Penalties for Academic Misconduct

First Offense: automatic failure of any and all assignments, quizzes, examinations, or class requirements in which academic misconduct occurred. The instructor of the course will notify the Academic Standards Committee via the registrar with an explanation of the situation. Discretion is given to the Academic Standards Committee and the Academic Dean to impose more strenuous penalties. The violation will remain on record and information concerning the incident will be communicated to all instructors.

Second Offense: automatic failure of any and all assignments, quizzes, examinations, or class requirements in which academic misconduct occurred. The instructor of the course will notify the Academic Standards Committee via the registrar. Discretion is given to the Academic Standards Committee and the Academic Dean to determine an appropriate penalty with a minimum penalty of failure of a course and a maximum penalty of suspension or dismissal. A record of the violation goes into the student's file. The Academic Dean will notify faculty of the results of this process.
