

ONLINE COURSE SYLLABUS

Course Information

SF-5506 Biblical Spiritual Formation, 2 credit hours

Course Description

This course is an analysis of biblical principles that develop and maintain one's relationship with God and one's thoughts about God's character. It includes a study of responses to these principles such as the principle of presentation, acceptance and authority in Christ, walking by the Spirit, dealing with guilt, trials, anger, fear, spiritual warfare, discerning God's will, and prayer.

Prerequisites: None. – The student is strongly encouraged to take the required IL-5500 Biblical and Spiritual Formation Lab concurrent with this course to receive maximum benefit.

Course Objectives

By the completion of this course you should be able to:

1. Articulate an understanding and experience the truth that the ultimate focus of God's will for men is to trust, love, and delight in God in all places and at all times. (Comprehension and Application)
2. Describe a proper foundation for the spiritual life based upon a proper knowledge of God and His riches of grace. (Comprehension)
3. Demonstrate a response to the truth about the character of God and riches of grace by presenting the control of your life to Him and daily walking by His Spirit. (Application)
4. Explain the biblical solutions to fear, trials, and anger. (Comprehension and Application)
5. To be able to discern and articulate the wrong motivations and correct goals for the spiritual disciplines. (Comprehension and Application)
6. Articulate an understanding of how to discern God's will. (Synthesis)
7. Articulate the importance, discipline and dynamics of an effective prayer life. (Analysis)
8. Articulate a biblical view of one's body. (Comprehension)
9. Articulate a personalized response to the truth of Christ's sufficiency in experiencing true acceptance, authority, enablement, and cleansing

Course Materials (required)

Only those items required to be obtained by you are listed on this syllabus. Some reading material and/or media links used in the course—but not required for purchase—will be provided in Canvas for the week/lesson in which the materials are used.

Bible:

A Bible is frequently used in online courses at Moody. Unless otherwise specified, you may use the Bible version of your choice. If a specific version is required, you may wish to purchase for your personal library. Many versions are available free online at: www.biblegateway.com, www.biblestudytools.com/bible-versions/, www.bible.com/versions, etc.

IMPORTANT: Textbooks and other materials in this online course are carefully selected and approved by Moody Bible Institute faculty to engage students in learning. Views expressed in the material may not necessarily reflect those held by Moody. We expect students to engage with course material in a mature and respectful way, understanding it may not always align with a biblical worldview and must be engaged with maturity and critical thinking. If you struggle with the content of the material from a biblical or theological perspective, please contact your course instructor for advice and guidance.

Course Work

All course work is due according to the course Schedule.

A. CLASS PARTICIPATION: Active participation is expected in this online course. Participation includes two main areas: study materials (reading/media) and discussion boards (student interaction). Class Participation contributes significantly to your final course grade.

1. Study Materials: The completion of the course reading, audio/video review, online articles, etc. is an important part of your education. You should complete these study materials prior to working on your weekly graded assignment(s) and initial discussion board posting each week so you are able to incorporate new concepts from these materials into your work. While Moody does not require the reporting of your reading/media engagement, you are each expected to engage with the content as expressed in the Course Honor Code & Professional Conduct Statements listed below.
2. Discussion Boards: You must maintain a significant presence in the discussion board. Refer to the discussion board instructions listed in the course for more information on how your participation in the discussion board will be assessed.

NOTE: The discussion response requirement in this course is different than most other courses! Make sure you complete your Week's Study Materials and other assignments related to the discussion before you participate in the discussion. Make sure you add a thread to the forum and post your initial response to the discussion topic by Thursday, 11:59 pm CT (Central Time) so you and your peers can read/respond to at least one classmate's initial responses by the Friday, 11:59 pm CT.

B. ASSIGNMENTS: Assignments are the primary means of assessing whether learning has transpired and may include papers, reports, exams, projects, and the like. Specific detail for each assignment is listed in Canvas. Create the assignment, save the file, then submit through a link in Canvas so they can be graded by your instructor. Your instructor will return assignments through Canvas. Submit all assignment by Monday at 11:59 pm CT unless otherwise stated in the directions.

Turabian Writing Style

Graduate students at Moody Bible Institute are to follow the Turabian style for all written assignments. Your instructor may waive this requirement for specific assignments such as discussion boards, blogs, emails, and the like, but if not stated otherwise, follow Turabian guidelines. Assignments not in proper Turabian format may be returned with a request to redo the assignment and could be subject to a late penalty.

Unless otherwise directed, all assignments submitted as a document are to be in a standard 12-point serif font (limited to Time New Roman, Cambria, Century Schoolbook), 8½ x 11 page size, double-spaced and are to be submitted as a Microsoft Word document (.doc or .docx) only. IMPORTANT: Other document formats will be returned to the student for resubmission with the possibility of a late penalty being applied.

You should follow the latest version of the Turabian style guide here: A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations. A "Citation Quick Guide" is available online.

Course Honor Code & Professional Conduct Statements

Course Honor Code

At Moody Bible Institute Distance Learning you are required to maintain the highest ethical and moral standards in your quest for academic excellence. Therefore, you commit to not cheat, steal, or claim credit for the ideas and words of others. You commit to respect the intellectual property of others and will always acknowledge the authorship of intellectual property in all forms. By participating in this course, you acknowledge you have read this syllabus and agree to abide by it.

Professional Conduct

Moody Bible Institute online students are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that is conducive to continued growth toward biblical and spiritual maturity. You are expected to access classes regularly, interact with the required readings and media, and to be fully prepared and engaged. You are expected to act professionally and with a high degree of ethical conduct while applying yourself fully to the job of learning. All communications are expected to be conducted in a professional manner, whether oral or written, in assignments, email, or Discussion Boards. Consult the Student Handbook for distance learning/online student's further details on the "Code of Conduct for Online and Non-Residential Students."

It is your obligation to know and observe all institute policies and procedures and to keep current with this class by reading the information posted on the Announcement page and sent by email to your official Moody.edu email address.

Academic Integrity and Penalties for Academic Misconduct

Academic integrity requires students to be responsible and honest in the fulfillment of all of their academic work. Assignments, examinations, and other educational requirements are intended to foster student learning. Students are expected to submit original work, to use appropriate citation giving credit to the ideas or words of another person, and to refrain from cheating of any kind.

Cheating

Cheating is any act (whether successful or attempted) in which a student is dishonest or seeks to gain an unfair advantage on an assignment, quiz, paper, examination, class, etc. Some common forms of cheating included, but are not necessarily limited to:

- Using unauthorized material during an examination or other assignments
- Submitting the same assignment in more than one class
- Lying to an instructor in order to obtain an excused absence, extension on an assignment, makeup examination, admission to a class or program, etc.
- Inappropriate collaboration on classroom assignments
- Assisting others in academic misconduct

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is taking the ideas or words of another person and presenting them as one's own whether intentional or unintentional. Intentional plagiarism is unethical and constitutes a serious infraction of academic policy. When the words or ideas of others are used, proper credit must be given, either in a footnote or in the text.

Penalties for Academic Misconduct

First Offense: automatic failure of any and all assignments, quizzes, examinations, or class requirements in which academic misconduct occurred. The instructor of the course will notify the Academic Standards Committee via the registrar with an explanation of the situation. Discretion is given to the Academic Standards Committee and the Academic Dean to impose more strenuous penalties. The violation will remain on record and information concerning the incident will be communicated to all instructors.

Second Offense: automatic failure of any and all assignments, quizzes, examinations, or class requirements in which academic misconduct occurred. The instructor of the course will notify the Academic Standards Committee via the registrar. Discretion is given to the Academic Standards Committee and the Academic Dean to determine an appropriate penalty with a minimum penalty of failure of a course and a maximum penalty of suspension or dismissal. A record of the violation goes into the student's file. The Academic Dean will notify faculty of the results of this process.

ADA Compliance Statement

Moody Bible Institute complies with the ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act) as well as Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, by providing appropriate accommodations to qualified students with disabilities. We encourage you to contact the disability services provider, at the Student Resource Center, to discuss possible environmental modifications or adaptations. Please note, accommodations are not retroactive; therefore, we encourage you to contact the services provider within the first two weeks of the semester. Contact information provided within each online course.
