Developing Web Applications and Social Media

Course Description

Developments in information technology and online social networking have posed opportunities and challenges for those who practice and research strategic communication. What are the implications of new digital communication technologies, in particular web and social media, for organizations' building and managing relationships with their target audiences? How can organizations – corporate, governmental, and nonprofit – use social media to improve their image and brand?

Course Prerequisites

No prerequisites are required

Required Materials

Required materials are available in each Canvas weekly module overview. There is no textbook required for purchase.

Assignment Descriptions

Discussions - 40%

In an online learning community, discussions are imperative to both the success of the individual student as well as the greater good of the group. Therefore, monitoring and engagement in discussions throughout the course are expected. Through interactions with peers and the instructor, the student will question, encourage, promote critical thinking, elaborate, clarify, probe, and prompt. Personal examples and resources should be openly shared. The discussion forum is a safe place, and professionalism and Christian ethic of care are expected. Some examples include:

- Suggest why you might see things differently.
- Ask a probing or clarifying question.
- Share an insight from having read your peer's posting.
- Offer and support an opinion.
- Validate an idea with your own experience.
- Make a suggestion.
- Expand on a peer's posting.
- Ask for evidence that supports the posting.

The instructor has only what the student posts to determine preparation and level of understanding. Therefore, it is imperative that the student clearly states responses to the prompts, including personal experiences, connections to course resources (readings, videos, etc.), and questions related to further exploration or application of the topic.

The following format must be used for online discussion:

Initial post is due Thursday by 11:59 PM/EST

- 1st paragraph answers prompt using citations/substantiation from course resources (APA format)
- 2nd paragraph ties theory to practice with examples from own placement
- APA References

Monitoring and engagement through replies to peers plus instructor must be evident throughout the discussion window: Initial post Thursday; interactions Friday OR Saturday; interactions on Sunday. Failure to interact and/or respond will result in a lower grade. Submitting the minimum number of posts does not automatically mean maximum number of points.

Web Application Integration - 30%

You have started on an online project that you have continually been refining in this program. We are going to revisit that online project with a focus on adding web 2.0 tools to address a specific need in the course. Select an area that you wish to address (e.g. increased engagement, formative feedback, etc.) and investigate tools that may be appropriate for the course and the specific area you wish to address. Integrate the tool within your course and give us a demonstration of the tool at work. You will also need to write a brief summary of your findings and key takeaways.

This project will be scaffolded with the following benchmarks:

- Week 2: Outline of areas to address (10%)
- Week 4: Tool selection (10%)
- Week 6: Final project (80%)

Social Media Strategy Paper - 30%

At this point in the program, you should have at least two major projects that you have been working on for some time. You have ideally been thinking about the audience for your project for some time as well. That audience will need to be made aware of your project – whether that is an internal organization audience or a wide public audience. Utilizing the strategies explored in this course, develop a comprehensive social media strategy to market your program.

Your paper should provide:

- An executive summary of the offering
- Analysis of your audience
- Details on your social media campaign
- A timeline of the campaign
- An overview of assessment strategies

This project will be scaffolded with the following benchmarks:

- Week 3: Project selection & campaign outline (10%)
- Week 5: Draft paper (30%)
- Week 7: Final paper (60%)

Grade Equivalency Table

All grades are reported in a system of eleven letter grades designated as “A” through “F” with appropriate plus and minus additions reflecting the following scheme:

Percentage Value	Letter Grade	Numeric Value for GPA
96-100	A	4.0
93-96	A-	3.7
90-93	B+	3.4
87-90	B	3.0
84-87	B-	2.7
81-84	C+	2.4

78-81	C	2.0
75-78	C-	1.7
73-75	D+	1.4
70-73	D	1.0
<70	F	0.0

Course Policies

Attendance Policy

Regular attendance is a key to success in the course. Please refer to the Attendance Policy outlined in the Catalog for full details of the SWU policy on attendance.

Online attendance is based on completion of at least one designated assignment by the due date/time posted within the course site for each week. Online activities may include lectures, assignments, readings, discussion forums, and assessments (e.g. quizzes, tests).

Late Assignment Policy

Assignments

Meeting assigned due dates is critical for demonstrating progress and ensuring appropriate time for instructor feedback on assignments. Students are expected to submit their assignments on or before the due date. Assignments are due by midnight on the days specified.

In the case of extenuating circumstances (such as hospitalization, childbirth, major accident, injury, military obligation, or bereavement), it is the responsibility of students to contact the instructor as soon as practicable. The instructor may waive the penalty for late work if the circumstances are justified.

Students must submit final course assignments no later than the last day of the term. No assignments are accepted after the last day of the term.

Discussions

Students must submit discussion board postings during the time frame indicated.
