Exams (7)	20%
PowerPoint Presentations (5)	20%
Opinion Forums (7)	10%
Reading Quizzes (7)	10%
Western Civ. Paper (1)	10%

Total	100%

Research Discussion Forums – (2 per week = 14 forums) – 20%

Each week, students will participate in two Research Discussion Forums. Each forum will require one answer to the main question and at least two replies to a classmate's response.

The main answer must be at least 100 words in length and contain at least one direct quote from a scholarly source that supports the student's answer. The direct quote cannot be more than 25 words in length, and it may not come from the textbook or an encyclopedia.

The two replies must be at least 25 words in length and add to the conversation (not just be a statement of agreement).

The main answer will be due by 11:59pm on Wednesday, and the two replies will be due by Saturday at 11:59pm.

See the Rubric in Canvas.

Exams – (1 per week = 7 exams) – 20%

There will be one exam per week that covers material in the textbook and the class PowerPoint. These exams ARE NOT open book. The exams will consist of short answer, essay questions, and terms where a short description/explanation must be provided. Students will be provided with a study guide for each exam. The exams will be due by 11:59pm on the Saturday of each week.

PowerPoint Presentations (5) – 20%

For this assignment you will choose one chapter from each week's reading in the textbook and create an outline summary of the contents of that chapter. You must submit this as a PowerPoint presentation. These are due in weeks 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 – the PowerPoint for week 7 can be any chapter from the reading in weeks 5 or 6.

A good way to think about this assignment is to imagine you are planning to teach your selected chapter, and you need an outline summary to display on a PowerPoint presentation. Your final slide should include two critical thinking questions related to the information in the chapter. Think of these questions as potential essay questions you might ask if you were giving a test on your selected chapter. Critical thinking questions often begin with words such as...analyze, compare, contrast, assess, explain, defend, etc., and many times they are not technically questions (they are more of an instruction). These questions should be more than simple "knowledge" questions (In what year was Jamestown founded?). Instead, the questions should call for higher level thinking (Compare the colonization of Virginia with the colonization of Carolina.).

Each PowerPoint presentation must include:

- 10 – 16 slides
- A summary of the entire chapter
- No smaller than 32 point font
- Times New Roman font
- A standard black text on a white background (no backgrounds or borders)
- No more than 12 lines per slide

You will not have the space to type everything in the chapter, so this assignment requires you to determine the important information...the significant events...the major themes...that make up the chapter. You will be condensing the information, and in order to do this successfully, you need to be very familiar with that chapter. I suggest you take notes on the chapter as you read; it will save you a great deal of time in the long run. There is a sample outline in Canvas.

PowerPoint assignment Rubric:

Excellent

100 pts

The presentation accurately sums up the selected chapter. Both critical thinking questions are present. All formatting requirements are followed. Contains no grammar or spelling errors.

Good

90 pts

The presentation accurately sums up the selected chapter. Both critical thinking questions are present. Most formatting requirements are followed. Contains a few grammar and/or spelling errors.

Acceptable

80 pts

The presentation accurately sums up parts of the selected chapter. The critical thinking questions are present, but not well-thought-out. Some formatting requirements are followed. Contains several grammar and/or spelling errors

Marginal

70 pts

The presentation does not accurately sum up the selected chapter. Only one critical thinking question is present, or both questions are present, but do not reflect material from the chapter. Some formatting requirements are followed. Contains several grammar and/or spelling errors

Needs

improvement

50 pts

The presentation does not sum up the selected chapter. No critical thinking questions are present. Virtually no formatting requirements are followed. Contains many grammar and/or spelling errors

Opinion Forums (1 per week = 7 forums) – 10%

Each week students will participate in one Opinion Forum. Each forum will require one answer to the main question and at least two replies to a classmate's response.

The main answer must be at least 100 words in length. While these forums do ask your opinion, it is expected to be an opinion informed by your reading of the textbook and weekly PowerPoint..

The two replies must be at least 25 words in length and add to the conversation (not just be a statement of agreement).

The main answer will be due by 11:59pm on Wednesday, and the two replies will be due by Saturday at 11:59pm.

See the Rubric in Canvas.

Reading Quizzes (in Sessions 1 - 6 = 6 quizzes) – 10%

There will be a reading quiz in weeks one through six. Each quiz will consist of 25 multiple choice questions, and these quizzes ARE open-book. They will be due by 11:59pm on Wednesday.

Western Civilization Paper (1) – 10%

Students will write a 1,000 word (approximately 3 pages) paper on the following topic: Trace the ideas of Western Civilization from their origins in Greece to the Twentieth Century.

This is a standard research paper, and you may use MLA, APA, or Chicago style (footnotes). The paper must be between 1,000 – 1,250 words.

Requirements:

A minimum of 3 sources (you can use more if you wish)

No general encyclopedias or Wikipedia

No webpages (any internet-related Journal articles found through the Library system is okay)

Formatting of the research paper:

The research paper should conform to the following standards:

- 1 inch margins on all sides

- 12 point Times New Roman font

- double-spaced

- page numbers in the top, right corner

- ragged edge on the right (this is usually the default setting for Word)

- Place a word count at the end

- A Bibliography/Works Cited page with all of your sources properly cited

Rubric for the Research Paper:

- For every 50 words below or above the requirement...-5 points.

- For every 5 grammar/spelling errors...-3 points

- Only 2 sources...-10 points. ----- Only 1 source...-20 points. ----- No sources...-40 points.

For every formatting instruction not followed...-3 points.

Staying on topic...at the discretion of the Instructor.

Museum Project (1) – 10%

Students will visit two local museums and create a PowerPoint display that documents their visits. The PowerPoint must contain pictures of the student standing beside any of the various displays in those two museums. The PowerPoint must contain at least 20 such photos (each one at a different display) plus a close-up photo of the display description (so a total of 40 pictures). Your pictures must come from at least two different museums (meaning you take 20 photos at one museum, and 20 photos at the second museum). Any local museum is acceptable, whether it be large or small, as long as it is a real museum.

Formatting of the Museum PowerPoint

The PowerPoint should contain a total of 22 slides

- o The first slide should show your name and the name of the first museum you visited.
- o Slides 2 – 11 should each contain two pictures: a close-up of the display description, and one of you standing beside the display (so 10 displays in these 10 slides).
- o Slide 12 should show your name and the name of the second museum you visited.
- o Slides 13 – 22 should each contain two pictures: a close-up of the display description, and one of you standing beside the display (so 10 displays in these 10 slides).

Museum Rubric

For every missing picture...-2 points.

For incorrect formatting...-2 points for each incident.

GRADE EQUIVALENCY TABLE

All grades are reported in a system of eleven letter grades designated as “A” through “F” with appropriate plus and minus additions reflecting the following scheme:

Percentage Value	Letter Grade	Numeric Value for GPA

65% - 69%	D+	1.4
60% - 64%	D	1.0
59% and below	F	0.0
